

REGULATIONS

Of Rural Carriers' Work no Inconvenience When Understood.

Cannot Carry Anything for Hire Except for Patrons and Only Unmailable Goods.

Explanations and orders under the new rural route laws, have been given out and are reported to the Journal by their Washington correspondent as follows:

"Under the law rural carriers are not permitted to solicit business or receive orders of any kind from any person, firm or corporation and cannot, during the hours of their employment, carry any merchandise for hire, except that they may carry merchandise for hire for and at the request of patrons residing on their respective routes, provided the same shall not interfere with the proper discharge of their official duties and under such regulations as the postmaster general may prescribe."

This is the substance of regulations issued at the Postoffice Department in accordance with the Overstreet amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill. It will be noted that the rule to govern the carriers is equally as direct and explicit as the law itself. Under no circumstances will rural carriers be permitted to do any agency business. Violations of this law will be grounds for dismissal. The carrier may perform errands for a patron, the compensation to be paid by the patron and not by the merchants from whom the articles or goods are purchased. The regulations state further: "Under this provision of law no mailable matter may be handled by rural carriers while serving their routes, unless the proper postage has been prepaid, with the single exception of county newspapers, which under the law are permitted to be carried free throughout the county in which they are published to actual subscribers, and such newspapers addressed to the subscribers' residence on rural route must be deposited at the postoffice the same as papers for other subscribers."

Following is the statement regarding the outside business privileges of the rural carriers issued in the Postoffice Department, and an order in accordance therewith will be promulgated at once by the postmaster general: "Under the law, rural carriers are not permitted to solicit or receive orders of any kind from any person, firm or corporation, and cannot during the hours of their employment, carry any merchandise for hire, except that they may carry merchandise for hire for and at the request of patrons residing on their routes, provided the same shall not interfere with the proper discharge of their official duties and under such regulations as the postmaster general may prescribe."

"Under this provision of law no mailable matter may be handled by rural carriers while serving their routes, unless the proper postage has been prepaid, with the single exception of county newspapers, which under the law are permitted to be carried free throughout the county in which they are published to actual subscribers, residents on rural routes, must be deposited at the postoffice the same as papers for the other subscribers."

"The hire for merchandise carried on the request of the patron of rural free delivery must be paid by the patron. Carriers will not be permitted to receive any compensation from the seller of such merchandise."

"Articles or packages, which are mailable, which are handed to the carrier or deposited in the postoffice or in a rural letter box or in a collection box located on a rural route with requests that the rural carrier deliver same, are subject to the rules regulating mail matter, including the payment of postage thereon."

"Articles or packages that are not mailable which the patron desires the rural carrier to carry must be delivered to the carrier in person, and in carrying merchandise for hire rural carriers are not permitted to leave their routes as officially laid out or to accept anything that will in any way delay the delivery of the mail or in any way interfere with the efficiency of the service."

There is another point decided in this connection which is not mentioned in the regulations issued by the postmaster general today. Efforts have been made by representatives of the publishers who opposed the Overstreet act to induce the department to permit newspapers to be mailed to the carriers in bulk, the carrier to be furnished with a list of subscribers to guide him in delivering. The postmaster general refuses to make any modification in the ruling heretofore made in this matter. He has decided that all papers delivered in rural routes must be directed to the individuals.

Advertising Pays.

Never in the history of Rushville have the people ever showed so plainly that they read the advertisements in the local papers, as on last Saturday night when the White House trade was so great that, with a large force of extra clerks the Seaman boys were almost unable to handle the trade. They report that the advertisements placed with the papers within the last few weeks has met all expectations and brought the people to their store in large crowds.

Additional Information.

[Connersville News]

Additional information has come to light regarding the purpose of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company officials to temporarily abandon the Connersville route until they are able to finally determine the cost of right-of-way. The announcement was made recently exclusively in this paper that the company had ordered steel rails shipped to Connersville with which to lay a double track on Sixth street before the paving improvement was made, in order to avert the necessity of tearing up the street at some future time. It is now learned from President Henry that this work will be abandoned and the rails that were enroute to Connersville have been ordered off the cars at Rushville.

ANNUAL TRIP

Rushville's Sunday Schools Will Go To Winona Lake June 28th.

The committee on arrangements for the several Sunday schools to make preparation for the annual outing of the Sunday schools have secured a day at Winona, with very low rates.

The Sunday schools of Rushville have all acquiesced in the arrangements and it will be in every sense of the word a union outing. There are more than a thousand Sunday school scholars in the city and a large crowd is expected.

Tuesday, June 28th, has been fixed as the date, and a special train will leave this city over the Big Four for Winona at 6:30 a. m. on that day, leaving Winona for the return trip at 6 p. m. The fare for adults will be $1.25 and for children under twelve, 65 cents for the round trip.

The prices stated include admission to the grounds and its general privileges and street car fare.

The grounds are fitted out in great shape as a place for an outing and boating, swinging and the playing of games can be freely indulged in. All should unite in making this trip the most successful one.

Another Application.

The Knightsdown liquor fight will be renewed again next Monday at the June meeting of the county commissioners. "Billy" Reiser, another of McCarty's henchmen, has filed application for a liquor license and a remonstrance against it as long as your arm has also been filed by the Knightsdown anti-liquor forces. Reiser's application will probably travel the same rough road as experienced by McNamee's and Swallow's applications.

In the meantime a cloud of witnesses from Knightsdown and Wayne township will descend on the county seat. —New Castle Courier.

TEACHERS RETAINED

School Board Elects a New Superintendent But Retains Same Teachers

The City School Board has decided to retain the present corps of teachers for the term of next year, with the exception of the Superintendent, in which there will be a change. Prof. A. G. McGregor will be succeeded next year by Prof. J. H. Scholl, of the Carthage schools. In Prof. McGregor, Rushville will lose a man who has labored faithfully to build up the schools and who has filled his office in a gratifying manner. In Prof. Scholl, Rushville gains a man who has had charge of the Carthage schools for several years and who has proven himself a man of knowledge and experience in school work.

The Board at one of its recent meetings decided to retain the present corps of teachers, who with their respective grades is as follows:

First Ward—No. 1, Miss Cunningham; 2, Miss Alma Odear; 3, Mary Lewis; 4, Miss Ellen Madden; 5, Miss Nellie Casady; 6B, Miss Minnie Heyworth; 6A, Miss Pet Meredith; 7B, Miss Helen Finkbine; 7A, Miss Margaret Casady; 8B, Miss Minnie Beale; 8A, Miss Anna Fisher.

High School—Latin, Miss Inez Abbott; Science, Prof. T. A. Craig; History and Grammar, Miss Mattie B. Lacey; Mathematics, Prof. A. F. Stewart; English, Miss Winifred Muire.

Third Ward—Miss Belle Gregg, Principal; No. 1, Miss May Meredith; 2, Miss Lois Fritter; 3, Miss Georgia Morris; 4, Miss Nina Ford; 5, Miss Margaret Flechart.

Decrease In School Attendance.

According to the compilation of figures in the office of Fassett A. Cotton, State superintendent of public instruction, the people of Indiana, especially in the rural districts, are not as hot on the trail of education as they should be, in the opinion of Mr. Cotton.

Last year the increase in the number of pupils enrolled in the schools of the State was 5635 over the preceding year. This year the increase is only 1202. The increase in population is reckoned at 1.4 per cent. each year, and as there is no question but that this increase has been made during the last twelve months, Superintendent Cotton is at a loss to know just where the trouble lies. He says, however, that the decrease in the rural districts may be accounted for by the fact that many people forsake the country for the cities in the hope of quick success. All of the cities show more or less increase, but even this, Superintendent Cotton claims, is not up to the standard.

BATTLE BEGINS

All Signs Point to the Actual Investment of Port Arthur.

The Nearest Cable Point Reports Continual Evidences of Active Bombardment.

Che Foo, June 7.—A correspondent at Teng Chow cables that there was firing at Port Arthur last night, beginning at 11:30 o'clock and continuing for several hours. A junk arriving during the night from Dalny reports that there was heavy firing all day yesterday in the vicinity of Port Arthur.

London, June 7.—The correspondent of the Times aboard the steamer Haimun, telegraphing June 6, says: "It is pretty certain from intelligence received by the Japanese secret service that even if the channel of Port Arthur is practicable for large-draught ships, there is not sufficient coal in Port Arthur for such vessels to take the sea. The explosions heard at Port Arthur are believed to have been caused by the demolition of certain government buildings. A portion of the Japanese Second army corps will hold the land approaches to Port Arthur until Talienway bay shall have been made practicable for a further debarkation. "Meantime a screen of mounted troops is being pushed up beyond Kaping for the purpose of allowing the reconstruction of the railroad to proceed as rapidly as possible."

JAPANESE ADVANCE

Another Army Landing on Eastern Coast of Liao Tung Peninsula.

Liao Yang, June 7.—Military interest is now centered upon the region of imminent operations. The Liao Tung peninsula. Another Japanese army is landing on the eastern coast as a counterweight to the Russian advance from Dashihsiao southward upon General Oku's army.

The Japanese have seemingly given up the idea of attacking Liao Yang if they entertained such a plan. The rainy season, which is expected to begin in two or three weeks, would, it is considered here, render an advance to Liao Yang impossible. Meanwhile the Cossacks are keeping in touch with the Japanese outposts. Another force is watching General Kuroki's right wing north of the Yalu river.

The health of the troops is remarkable everywhere. There are no contagious diseases, and only a few cases of intestinal disorders, but medical authorities do not expect such immunity during the hot weather that is now beginning. The health of the troops is not attributed so much to sanitary precautions as to the simple but excellent diet. The Russians live principally on bread made of coarse flour and soup composed of meal and vegetables. They seldom drink ordinary water, thereby avoiding a principal source of disease.

More Russian Troops.

St. Petersburg, June 7.—It is said that the mobilization of the First army corps belonging to St. Petersburg province will be announced in a few days and that it will be followed by the mobilization of the Fifth and Sixth army corps of the Volga region. Probably a month will elapse before these corps are ready to start. In the meantime the Siberian railroad will be taxed to its utmost capacity in taking out the Tenth and Seventeenth corps now moving.

ILLINOIS FOR HEARST

The Editor Candidate Has His Forces Well in Hand.

Chicago, June 7.—William Randolph Hearst will be endorsed by the Illinois state convention as its candidate for the presidential nomination. That was practically decided at a roundup of Democrats held at the Sherman House. The Chicago people settled the matter. They represented that they had made a practical deal with the Hearst forces at the Democratic primaries in Cook county on May 2, and must stand by the bargain. The others agreed and so there is now practically no opposition to the Hearst endorsement, except such as Mayor Harrison and Congressman Williams may be able to make. That is not regarded as serious. The convention will meet at Springfield on June 21.

A Tremendous Earthquake.

Lima, Peru, June 7.—Tacna and Arica in Chile were shaken by a tremendous earthquake at 1:35 a. m. yesterday.

day. The inhabitants ran into the streets in their nightclothes. The walls of many buildings were cracked and the sea agitated, but so far as reported no person was killed.

Will Be Paid on New Basis.

Washington, June 7.—Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow announces that the salaries of the rural free delivery mail carriers will be adjusted on the basis of the number of miles traveled.

SUDDEN DEATH

Joseph Benning Dies Suddenly From Heart Disease.

Joseph Benning, aged 51, died of heart disease at his home on East Eighth street last night about ten o'clock.

He had been somewhat indisposed, but was in his usual health upon retiring, and about ten o'clock his wife heard him struggling and thinking he was dreaming or having night-mare, went to his side to awaken him, but he gave only a few short gasps and expired.

He worked in his garden yesterday and came down town with a friend last evening. It has been known for some time that he was afflicted with heart trouble.

Mr. Benning was well known in this city, having lived here many years. He leaves a wife and four children.

The funeral services will be held at the house tomorrow at 1:00 p. m., by Rev. W. W. Sniff, after which the remains will be taken to Moscow for burial.

Richland Township Convention.

The Republican Township Convention, of Richland township, for the purpose of nominating township officers will be held on Saturday, June 11th, at the Richland school house, at 1 o'clock p. m.

By ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

If Connorsville wants to play ball at the leading flag stations between the cities of Connorsville and Gwynneville, they ought to play some first class teams and get a reputation.

If the Indianapolis papers can only start the new trial at Rising Sun before the discovery of new clues at Bedford gets stale on their hands the people will continue to be punished with "live" news.

Twelve non-union miners were blown to pieces by dynamite at Independence, Colorado, yesterday and the outrage is attributed to union men. Like many other cases of this kind the better class of strikers were not implicated in this brutal murder, but the union forces will no doubt suffer in that community, because some of them saw fit to resort to such action. It is deplorable and an extremely unfortunate occurrence for the miners' union.

There are a number of persons in every town that go to every meeting of every kind, but instead of taking any interest in the proceedings, they talk and gossip to their friends on different subjects and disturb not only the speaker but every one present who is really interested and would like to hear what is going on. This pleasant pastime was freely engaged in at the cemetery Sunday, and it is a subject of general comment, and ought to be avoided in the future and persons attending a gathering of this kind, when wishing to converse, should, out of respect for the speaker and his earnest listeners, step far enough away from the crowd, to avoid disturbing his friends in this manner. Every one agrees that this practice is wrong, but some of the parties who did it were simply following the example of some persons near who had kept them from hearing the speaker. But we should avoid it in any case, and while it might be a little out of place, it would be considered patriotic to goodnaturedly give your friends who violate etiquette thus, a little "call down."

MANY HOOSIERS GOING

Indiana Will Be Well Represented at the Chicago Convention.

Indianapolis, June 7.—The migration of the Indiana Republican leaders to Chicago for the next national convention June 21 and 22, will begin the middle of next week. Congressman James A. Hemenway intends to be in Chicago by the 15th or 16th. Chairman Goodrich and United States District Attorney J. B. Keating are going about the same time. That so many of Senator Fairbanks' lieutenants are going so early may be regarded as significant, but they say that it is not. Mr. Hemenway says he wants to be on the ground early for the purpose of meeting his friends who are members of delegations from other states. Some of the party leaders here are inclined to contradict the predictions that there will be a larger attendance than ever before at the convention. They figure that the program is cut and dried and that there is not so much interest. However, it is not very likely that many of the men who are figured as party leaders will be absent. The fact that so many of them are arranging to be on the ground early is regarded as an indication that they are sure that Indiana will cut a very prominent figure. It may be stated on pretty good authority that the name of Senator Fairbanks for vice president will not be presented before the Chicago convention by the Indiana delegation. If the nomination comes there must be a spontaneous demand in which other states will have to take the lead. Men who are on the "inside" confirmed the report made public in these columns yesterday that there is to be no booming of Senator Fairbanks by the Indiana delegation, as it would be very distasteful to him. The senator, it was stated definitely today, is not anxious to have the nomination and will not accept unless there are circumstances over which he has no control. The reports that he had told a number of prominent Republicans in Indiana that he would accept were promptly and emphatically denied today by Congressman Hemenway.

Fremont Goodwine of Williamsport, who was yesterday renominated for senator from the district composed of Benton, Fountain and Warren counties, is one of the best known Republicans in Indiana. He has served with much credit to himself in the party and is known as a great friend of Governor Durbin. The latter twice appointed him a member of the legislative committee on visitation to the state benevolent and penal institutions and during the last session he introduced the "ripper bill." He was one of its staunch adherents. Just prior to the state convention there was an attempt on the part of the opponents of J. Frank Hanly to bring him out as a candidate for governor in hopes of dividing Hanly's Tenth district vote, but Goodwine refused to listen to the tempters, although it was said that he would have been a candidate for governor if Hanly had not entered the race first. It is already rumored that his friends may urge him for president pro tem of the senate.

Party leaders are much mystified over a conference held here yesterday afternoon by Congressman Hemenway, Congressman Watson, Chairman Goodrich, H. C. Starr of Richmond, and United States District Attorney Keating at the latter's office in the federal building. These men are the pillars of what is known as the Fairbanks organization, and that they should have held a secret conference at this time has excited much speculation, as it is generally believed they were discussing the Fairbanks vice presidential boom and what course should be pursued by the Indiana delegation. As all of them know how to keep their own counsel it is not certain just what was done. Mr. Hemenway was frank enough to state that he does not want Senator Fairbanks to accept and that other strong friends of the senator are of the same opinion. But whether or not they went to him with such a statement is not known.

INDIANA EDITORS

Will Be Well Entertained at World's Fair This Week.

St. Louis, June 7.—A. C. Alexander of Marion, manager of the Indiana building, has begun making arrangements for Indiana editors' day at the fair. He has obtained pass coupons for the editors to the principal attractions on the Pike and several other concessions. The Southern Indiana Editorial association and the Indiana Democratic association will hold their annual sessions in the Indiana building Friday morning and the Northern Indiana, the Indiana State and the Indiana Republican Editorial association will meet at the Indiana building with them in the afternoon. A reception and buffet luncheon will be given in the evening.

Boodle Alderman Pleads Guilty.
 Green Bay, Wis., June 7.—Alderman George J. Schwartz pleaded guilty to accepting three bribes aggregating $130 from contractors and these furnishing material as used on city contracts. There are three other indictments against Schwartz. A change of venue to Fond du Lac county was taken in cases against Alderman A. L. Gray, City Attorney A. B. Fontaine and City Assessor X. Parmenter.

Havana, June 7.—The government is advised that six dynamite bombs have been exploded in the shops of the Cuban Eastern railway at Guantanamo. Considerable damage has been done. The road is owned by Americans. Jamaicans are alleged to be the culprits.

ANARCHY EXISTS

The Situation in Colorado Gold Fields Leads to War.

A HORRIBLE OUTBREAK

A Dozen Non-Union Miners Killed by Deliberate Explosion of an Infernal Machine.

Soldiers Called Out and Many Union Miners Are Killed in a Charge.

Cripple Creek, Col., June 7.—Twelve men were killed by the explosion of an infernal machine at the railroad station in Independence, and seven others were seriously injured. Eleven men were killed outright and one died later from wounds. All the killed and injured with the exception of two men from the Deadwood mine, were non-union miners employed on the night shift of the Findley mine. The men were waiting to board a suburban train on the Florence and Cripple Creek railroad and return to their homes in Cripple Creek and Victor. Just after the engineer of the approaching train blew his whistle as a signal to the miners, according to custom, a terrific explosion occurred underneath the station platform, on and near which twenty-six men were gathered. The platform was blown into splinters, the station was wrecked and a hole twenty feet in circumference and about as many feet in depth was torn in the ground. Fragments of bodies were hurled through space for several hundred feet and later were picked up still quivering.

Some of the bodies dropped into the pit made by the explosion, but heads, hands, ears, legs, arms and trunks were strewn about on all sides. Pieces of flesh were found on buildings 500 feet away and blood-stains everywhere within a radius of fifty feet. A special train was sent from Cripple Creek carrying physicians, nurses, officers and many others, but when it reached Independence the injured had already been placed on board the suburban train and removed to the hospital in Victor. The mangled bodies of the dead, placed together as well as possible, were removed to the coroner's office.

The infernal machine with which the diabolical work was done consisted of a quantity of dynamite, estimated at 100 to 200 pounds, a loaded revolver and a long slender steel wire attached to the trigger. The revolver was fastened so that the pulling of the trigger would not draw it away. The wire ran from under the station to the cribbing of the Delmonico property, about 400 feet away, where its end was fastened to a rung of a chair. The dynamite was placed close to the muzzle of the revolver, which was discharged by pulling the wire when the engineer blew his whistle. The ball from the revolver exploded the dynamite.

A man was seen running down the hill from the Delmonico after the explosion. The Victor troops, who were ordered out by Mayor French, were so stationed as to keep people from passing over the path taken by this man, and blood-hounds were sent from Canyon City and Trinidad for the purpose of trailing the assassin.

The infernal machine was similar to the one exploded in the Victor mine on Nov. 21, 1903, killing two men. Without explanation and with a suddenness that caused great surprise, Sheriff Henry M. Robertson resigned his position and Edward Bell was named to succeed him by the county commissioners. Bell is a member of the Citizens' Alliance. City Marshal O'Connell of Victor has sworn in a large number of special policemen, who are patrolling the streets with shotguns. Many union men have armed themselves and say they will resist with violence any attempt to run them out of town, as is proposed. Detectives have been engaged to shadow the movements of every prominent union leader in the camp. Clarence Hamlin of the Mine Owners' association has arrived at Victor and has taken charge of affairs there. He declared this afternoon that the men who are responsible for the Independence outrage should be hanged from a telephone pole, and that he would be only too glad to help pull the rope if the murderers could be discovered and captured.

A DEADLY VOLLEY

Soldiers at Victor Return the Fire of Strikers.

Denver, June 7.—Adjutant General Bell has been informed by telephone from Victor that an attack was made late yesterday afternoon on miners' union hall by a squad of soldiers. Major Naylor sent guards to aid in quelling the disturbance. When the uniformed men swung into Fourth street they were fired upon from houses on both sides of the street. They returned the fire and raced on at a double quick until they were near the miners' union hall. At that point the mob scattered and as the soldiers halted several shots were fired at them from the windows of the hall.

The doors of the building had been left open and a dozen guardsmen fired into the hall as fast as they could work their rifles. After a few volleys the order to take the place by assault was given and they jumped in. It was reported to General Bell that a number of men were killed, but none of the guardsmen was injured.

At the headquarters of Adjutant General Bell in this city everything is in readiness to promptly meet a call for additional troops in the gold camp. It is understood that the roads have been instructed to have engines and cars ready and a quick run to Cripple Creek would follow an appeal for more soldiers. However, from the tone of a communication received from Sheriff Bell, the newly appointed officer of Teller county, he will only ask for further aid in the military as a last resort. He intimates that he can control the situation unless a general clash of opposing interests occurs. This outbreak had its inception in the strike of the members of the Western Federation of Miners something over a year ago, when 4,000 men quit work for the purpose primarily of enforcing an eight-hour day. This action, so incensed the mine owners that they declared a war on unionism and the breach has grown wider with the passage of time. Much lawlessness has prevailed in the strike-ridden districts and unionists have been brought to trial on numerous charges. They were invariably acquitted, however.

Followed by Fatal Rioting.

Victor, Col., June 7.—Rioting broke out in this city while a mass meeting was being held to discuss the murder of twelve non-union miners by means of an infernal machine at Independence. Forty shots were fired into the crowd in the street. One man was killed and six persons at least injured. R. McGee of Victor, who was instantly killed, had been standing on an embankment thirty feet above the men who had been fighting, and was an innocent spectator.

Moyer Still a Prisoner.

Denver, June 7.—The state supreme court has refused the application for a writ of habeas corpus for Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, who is held as a military prisoner at Telluride.

Old Feud Revived.

Eagle Lake, Tex., June 7.—W. T. Eldredge, general manager of the Cane Belt railroad, was shot and very seriously wounded as he left his office. An arrest has been made, but the prisoner claims an alibi. Some months ago Eldredge shot and killed William Donovan, a prominent planter, and the shooting is attributed to that affair.

Situation in Low Lands Serious.

Little Rock, Ark., June 7.—One of the worst floods ever experienced in the Arkansas valley is threatened and the situation in the lowlands is serious. At Little Rock the river registers 1.4 feet above the danger line.

The State Tax Law.

The Lafayette Journal takes Mr. A. G. Smith to task for some things he said about the present tax law and debt paying in this state. It says:

"In trying to make a little Democratic capital out of this legislation Mr. Smith ignored the record, and states what did not happen. The bill for amending the tax law was in charge of Senator Howard, of South Bend, chairman of the senate finance committee. It was considered by that committee and the committee of ways and means from the house in joint session. There was not the slightest opposition to it by any of the Republican members of either committee. There was no politics in it, and it was believed to be meritorious legislation by Republicans and Democrats. There was no lobby about the legislature fighting it, and no opposition to it on the floor of either house. It passed and became a law, was upheld by the courts and has been enforced by Republican administrations ever since. It put more money into the treasury than had ever been put there before, and by wise and economical management of the state's business a surplus was created with which the state's obligations were greatly reduced. . . . It is just to the Democrats of the legislature of 1891 to say that they builded better than they knew, but greater credit is due to a party capable of the honest and faithful enforcement of a law, than to one that had merely spread it upon the statute books."

It is said that whether a man got into the recent Parker convention or not depended not so much upon his credentials as upon whether he wore a Parker tag or not.

The new British battleship Hibernian is to be fitted for the storage of oil fuel in large quantities, and her sister ships, the Britannia and Africa, will, it is believed, be similarly fitted.

STATE NEWS

Pierceville, Ind., June 7.—August Knocke migrated to America from Germany many years ago, bringing with him his family, which also included his son Valentine, two years old. The senior Knocke took out naturalization papers and became a full-fledged citizen; a precaution neglected by Valentine, who always disclaimed allegiance to the fatherland. Valentine, who is thirty-two years old, served in the Spanish-American war and afterward in the Philippines, and he is now engaged in mining in Colorado. Recently the senior Knocke was notified by the German authorities that the son was still a German subject, and he was ordered to return for military service. No attention will be paid to the order, but Valentine will place himself on record as a naturalized citizen of America.

THE FIGHT RENEWED

Berne People Admit No Compromise in Saloon Case.

Portland, Ind., June 7.—The anti-saloon fight at Berne, which caused a reign of terror in that little Swiss town for several months, resulting in dynamiting the home of Fred Rohrer, editor of the Berne Witness, the temperance leader, and in driving four saloons out of business, has been renewed. Undeterred by the assaults upon himself and family, Editor Rohrer has filed five fresh remonstrances against as many applicants to retail intoxicants. These remonstrances bear a large majority of the legal voters of the township and town. Editor Rohrer will continue the fight indefinitely, having abundant means at his command, as the temperance folks, who are wealthy, say they will never every dollar that the brewers want to risk in the fight. The cases will be in evidence before the county commissioners tomorrow.

The defense sought a new trial on the ground that this allegation was omitted, and on the court's overruling the motion to file affidavits, appealed to the appellate court.

BLOODY RACE RIOT

Mob in a Territory Town Creates Terror Among Negroes.

Ardmore, I. T., June 7.—Maidall, a town of probably 2,000, was the scene of wild excitement among the colored inhabitants last night when an attempt was made by a mob of between fifteen and twenty white people to drive the negroes out of the town. Hundreds of shots were fired into the homes of the negroes. No one was hurt so far as can be learned with the exception of a member of the mob, who was slightly wounded by a shot fired, it is said, by Mrs. W. E. Bonner, a colored woman, in defense of her home. This angered the crowd and they attempted to break into her home, but she pluckily stood her ground. The mob visited nearly every house in the colored settlement and fired shots into the houses. The occupants, terror-stricken, lay on the floor and escaped the fusillades. Men in the mob warned the negroes to leave town or suffer death.

PLAYED A GREAT GAME.

Home Team Outclassed Greensburg at Every Stage Yesterday—Shelbyville Today.

—Future Games.

The Rushville team clearly outclassed the crack Greensburg team at every stage in yesterday's game in that city. Pruitt made good his promise of a shut-out and only allowed the Reds two hits. Donnell pitched for the Greensburg and five hits were secured from his delivery. The game was a veritable pitchers' battle.

All the players on the Greensburg team, with the exception of three have played with different league teams throughout the country, but they were not quite fast enough for Rushville. The game yesterday was fast and exciting, Greensburg only succeeding in getting one man, Donnell, to third.

The features of the game were the pitching of Pruitt, the batting and fielding of Wagner, who got four out of the five hits secured, and out of four times at bat, and the fielding of Kiser.

The score in yesterday's game was as follows:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R. H. E.
Rushville... 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 5 0
Greensburg... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 4

Struck out—by Pruitt, 10; by Donnell, 9; bases on balls—off Pruitt, 3; off Donnell, 1. Time of game, 1 hour 37 minutes. Umpire, Craig. Attendance, 540.

The Shelbyville team arrived this morning and is playing against the locals this afternoon. Wagner is on the rubber for Rushville and Bennett for Shelbyville.

The game at Franklin College, Thursday, has been cancelled by the Franklin team. Greensburg will play here Friday and the Indianapolis Duesseldorfers Sunday. It is certain that the games will be fast and furious.
